

Dear Designers,

Welcome to the

Merino Homes Design Challenge for 2020.

We have selected 3 beautiful home styles for this year's challenge, Rebuild Down Under. The Merino Homes Team have partnered up with companies Australia wide and are offering access to complimentary plan, interior design layouts and briefs to those affected. We are hoping to partner with Bunnings, PGH Bricks and Pavers, Beaumont Tiles, Harvey Norman, Caroma, Winning appliances and Bauer Media Group for this challenge.

What is Rebuild Down under? This initiative was originally put together to support the people devastated by the Black Summer fires but has now evolved into "Rebuild Down Under", helping everyone who has survived the challenges that 2020 threw at us.

The three styles chosen are: Shed Movement, Modern Coastal and Colonial (old meets new).

Your job as designers is to supply a full interior selections brief for our three home styles. Good luck & remember, you are designing for a lifestyle not a show home. Be bold, be daring and be true to your vision. Fill this home with love and excitement, so it can be enjoyed for the many years to come.

Kind regards,

Katie & David

WHAT YOU WILL FIND IN THIS BRIEF

Design brief for three rooms

2020 – DESIGN CHALLENGE MODERN COASTAL KITCHEN | BATHROOM | LIVING

These three areas need to complement the style of the home. The Budgets for kitchen and prime cost items (PC) such as taps, baths, sinks etc will be found in the brief and the project specifications.

OWNERS

For this challenge, every owner has been affected by the challenges of 2020, they will all be different, but are all interested in the same style.

MERINO NOTES

Merino Homes is a company that focuses on quality and old school values. Owners David and Katherine value quality work, good building practice and upholding a standard to be proud of. They surround themselves with a team that is like-minded & work with many amazing trades who also love what they do. Merino Homes is a small company by choice. David and Katherine have a large involvement with all projects from concept to completion and believe that any investment from their clients should be respected and honoured as if it was an investment of their own.

The "Merino Experience" is structured whilst also being tailored and flexible to meet the needs of their clients. Understanding that building a home can be one of the biggest investments emotionally and financially, the Merino experience allows people to have direct access to the builder and receive a more personal service.
